THE TELEGRAPH ACT, 1885

*¹Act NO. XIII OF 1885

[22nd July, 1885]

An Act to amend the law relating to Telegraphs in ²[Pakistan]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to telegraphs in ³[Pakistan]; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, local extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the ⁴[*] Telegraph Act, 1885.

⁵[(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan, and it applies also to ⁶[all citizens of Pakistan and persons in the service of Government wherever they may be.]]

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of October, 1885.

2. ⁷[Repealed]

3. Definitions.— In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

⁸[(1) “telegraph” means any apparatus, equipment or plant used for transmitting, emitting, making or receiving signs, signals, writing, speech, sound or intelligence of any nature by wire, radio or visual or electromagnetic system:]

(2) “telegraph officer” means any person employed either permanently or temporarily in connection with a telegraph established, maintained or worked by ⁹[the ¹⁰[Federal Government]] or by a person licensed under this Act:

^{*}The Act was repealed by Ord. LI of 1994, but the same has been revived by Ord. No. LXIII of 1995, s.33.

¹This Act was declared to be in force in Baluchistan by the British Baluchistan Laws Regulation, 1913 (II of 1913), s. 3 and Sch.

It has also been extended to the Leased Areas of Baluchistan, see the Leased Areas (Laws) Order, 1950 (G. G. O. III of 1950); and applied in the Federated Areas of Baluchistan, see Gazette of India, 1937, Pt. I, p. 1499.

It has been applied to Phulera in the Excluded Area of Upper Tanawal to the extent the Act is applicable in the N.W.F.P., subject to certain modifications; and also extended to the Excluded Area of Upper Tanawal (N.W.F.P.) other than Phulera with effect from such date and subject to such modifications as may be notified, see N.W.F.P. (Upper Tanawal) (Excluded Area) Laws Regulation, 1950.

¹[Provided further that the ²[Federal Government] may, by rules made under this Act and published in the ³[official Gazette], permit, subject to such restrictions and conditions as ⁴[it] thinks fit, the establishment, maintenance and working—

- (a) of wireless telegraphs on ships within ⁵[Pakistan] territorial waters ⁶[and on aircraft within or above ⁷[Pakistan], or ⁵[Pakistan] territorial waters], and
- (b) of telegraphs other than wireless telegraphs within any part of ⁷[Pakistan].

(2) The ²[Federal Government] may, by notification in the ³[official Gazette], delegate to the telegraph authority all or any of ⁸[its] powers under the first proviso to sub-section (1).

The exercise by the telegraph authority of any power so delegated shall be subject to such restrictions and conditions as the ²[Federal Government] may, by the notification, think fit to impose.]

5. Power for Government to take possession of licensed telegraphs and to order interception of messages.—(1) On the occurrence of any public emergency, or in the interest of the public safety, the ⁹[Federal Government] or a ¹⁰[Provincial Government], or any officer specially authorized in this behalf ¹¹[by the ⁹[Federal Government] or a Provincial Government], may—

- (a) take temporary possession of any telegraph established, maintained or worked by any person licensed under this Act; or
- (b) order that any message or class of messages to or from any person or class of persons or relating to any particular subject brought for transmission by, or transmitted or received by, any telegraph, shall not be transmitted, or shall be intercepted or detained, or shall be disclosed to ¹²[the Government making the order] or an officer thereof mentioned in the order.

(2) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency, or whether any act done under sub-section (1) was in the interest of the public safety, ¹³[a certificate of the ⁹[Federal Government] or, as the case may be, the Provincial Government] shall be conclusive proof on the point.

¹Second proviso and sub-section (2) were added to that section by the Indian Telegraph (Amdt.) Act, 1914 (VII of 1914), s. 4.

¹²Subs. by A. O., 1937, for “the Govt.”.

¹³Subs. ibid., for, “a certificate signed by a Secretary to the G. of I or to the L. G.”.

6. Power to establish telegraph on land of Railway Company.—¹[The Railway Administration], on being required so to do by the ²[Federal Government], shall permit the Government to establish and maintain a telegraph upon any part of the land ³[under the management or control of the Administration], and shall give every reasonable facility for working the same.

7. Power to make rules for the conduct of telegraphs.—(1) The ²[Federal Government] may, from time to time, by notification in the ⁴[official Gazette], make rules consistent with this Act for the conduct of all or any telegraphs established, maintained or worked by the Government or by persons licensed under this Act.

(2) Rules under this section may provide for all or any of the following, among other matters, that is to say:—

- (a) the rates at which, and the other conditions and restrictions subject to which, messages shall be transmitted;
- (b) the precautions to be taken for preventing the improper interception or disclosure of messages;
- (c) the period for which, and the conditions subject to which, telegrams and other documents belonging to, or being in the custody of, telegraph officers shall be preserved; and
- (d) the fees to be charged for searching for telegrams or other documents in the custody of any telegraph officer.

(3) When making rules for the conduct of any telegraph established, maintained or worked by any person licensed under this Act, the ²[Federal Government] may, by the rules, prescribe fines for any breach of the same:

Provided that the fines so prescribed shall not exceed the following limits, namely:—

- (i) when the person licensed under this Act is punishable for the breach, one thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing breach a further fine of two hundred rupees for every day after the first during the whole or any part of which the breach continues;
- (ii) when a servant of the person so licensed, or any other person, is punishable for the breach, one-fourth of the amounts specified in clause (i).

⁴Subs. by A. O.,1937, for “Gazette of India”.

¹[7A. Recovery of dues in respect of telegraph, etc.—If any person does not pay any sum due from him under this Act in respect of any telegraph or message, the sum so due may, on application made by the telegraph authority in this behalf, be recovered from such person, as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident; and the telegraph authority may further direct that any message, ^{2[* * *]} not being on Pakistan State Service, addressed to that person, shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.]

8. Revocation of licenses.—The ³[Federal Government] may, at any time, revoke any license granted under section 4, on the breach of any of the conditions therein contained, or in default of payment of any consideration payable thereunder.

9. Government not responsible for loss or damage.—The ⁴[Government] shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in consequence of any telegraph officer failing in his duty with respect to the receipt, transmission or delivery of any message; and no such officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless he causes the same negligently, maliciously or fraudulently.

PART III POWERS TO PLACE TELEGRAPH LINES AND POSTS

10. Power for telegraph authority to place and maintain telegraph lines and posts.—⁵[The telegraph authority may place, set up, repair, alter and maintain or cause to be placed, set up, repaired, altered and maintained a telegraph line, post or works under, over, along, across or through any land, seashore, road, stream, water or any immovable property, may break, excavate and remove soil to the extent and depth required for placing or removing telegraph line, post or works, and, for the purpose of constructing or maintaining a telegraph line or post, may dig earth, stone and gravel and fell trees].

Provided that—

THE PAKISTAN CODE

- (a) the telegraph authority shall not exercise the powers conferred by this section except for the purposes of a telegraph established or maintained by the ³[Federal Government], or to be so established or maintained;
- (b) the ³[Federal Government] shall not acquire any right other than that of user only in the property under, over, along, across, in or upon which the telegraph authority places any telegraph line or post; and ¹Ins. by Act No. XXV of 1957, s. 2.

²Omitted by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 6.

³Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 2, for “Central Government”

⁴Subs. by A. O., 1961, Art. 2, for “Crown”.

⁵Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 7, for certain words.

- (c) except as hereinafter provided, the telegraph authority shall not exercise those powers in respect of any property vested in or under the control or management of any local authority, without the permission of that authority; and
- (d) in the exercise of the powers conferred by this section, the telegraph authority shall do as little damage as possible, and, when it has exercised those powers in respect of any property other than that referred to in clause (c), shall pay full compensation to all persons interested for any damage sustained by them by reason of the exercise of those powers.

11. Power to enter on property in order to repair or remove telegraph lines or posts.—

The telegraph authority may, at any time, for the purpose of examining, repairing, altering or removing any telegraph line ¹[, post or works], enter on the property under, over, along, across, in or upon which the line or post has been placed.

Provisions applicable to Property vested in or under the Control or Management of Local Authorities.

12. Power for local authority to give permission under section 10, clause (c), subject to conditions.— ²[(1)] Any permission given by a local authority under section 10, clause (c), may be given subject to such reasonable conditions as that authority thinks fit to impose, as to the payment of any expenses to which the authority will necessarily be put in consequence of the exercise of the powers conferred by that section, or as to the time or mode of execution of any work, or as to any other thing connected with or relative to any work undertaken by the telegraph authority under those powers [:]³

⁴[Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the local authority shall not impose any condition which requires the telegraph authority to pay rent or royalty for setting up or placing a telegraph line over, across, along or through the property of that authority.]

⁴[(2) Any dispute regarding the amount of the expenses payable by the telegraph authority under sub-section (1) shall be determined in accordance with section 15:

Provided that permission to the telegraph authority shall not be withheld on account of such dispute.]

¹Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 8, for “or post”

²Re-numbered, as sub-section (1) of that section, ibid., s. 9.

³Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 9, for full-stop.

⁴Added ibid.

13. Power for local authority to require removal or alteration of telegraph line or post.— When, under the foregoing provisions of this Act, a telegraph line ¹[, post or works] has been placed by the telegraph authority under, over, along, across, in or upon any property vested in or under the control or management of a local authority, and the local authority, having regard to circumstances which have arisen since the telegraph line ¹[, post or works] was so placed, considers it expedient that it should be removed or that its position should be altered, the local authority may require the telegraph authority to remove it or alter its position, as the case may be.

14. Power to alter position of gas or water pipes or drains.— The telegraph authority may, for the purpose of exercising the power conferred upon it by this Act in respect of any property vested in or under the control or management of a local authority, alter the position thereunder on any pipe (not being a main) for the supply of gas or water, or of any drain (not being a main drain):

Provided that—

(a) when the telegraph authority desires to alter the position of any such pipe or drain, it shall give reasonable notice of its intention to do so, specifying the time at which it will begin to do so, to the local authority, and, when the pipe or drain is not under the control of the local authority, to the person under whose control the pipe or drain is;

(b) a local authority or person receiving notice under clause (a) may send a person to superintend the work, and the telegraph authority shall execute the work to the reasonable satisfaction of the person so sent.

15. Disputes between telegraph authority and local authority.—(1) If any dispute arises between the telegraph authority and a local authority in consequence of the local authority refusing the permission referred to in section 10, clause (c), or prescribing any condition under section 12, or in consequence of the telegraph authority omitting to comply with a requisition made under section 13, or otherwise in respect of the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act, it shall be determined by such officer as the ²[Federal Government] may appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(2) An appeal from the determination of the officer so appointed shall lie to the ¹[Federal Government]; and the order of the ²[Federal Government] shall be final.

Provisions applicable to other Property

16. Exercise of powers conferred by section 10, and disputes as to compensation, in case of property other than that of a local authority.—(1) If the exercise of the powers mentioned in section 10 in respect of property referred to in clause (d) of that section is resisted or obstructed, the District Magistrate may, in his discretion, order that the telegraph authority shall be permitted to exercise them.

¹Subs by Act No. LXVII of 1975), s. 10, for “or post”.

²Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 2, for “Central Government”.

(2) If, after the making of an order under sub-section (1), any person resists the exercise of those powers, or, having control over the property, does not give all facilities for their being exercised, he shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 188 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

(3) If any dispute arises concerning the sufficiency of the compensation to be paid under section 10, clause (d), it shall, on application for that purpose by either of the disputing parties to the District Judge within whose jurisdiction the property is situate, be determined by him.

(4) If any dispute arises as to the persons entitled to receive compensation or as to the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in it, the telegraph authority may pay into the Court of the District Judge such amount as he deems sufficient, or, where all the disputing parties have in writing admitted the amount tendered to be sufficient or the amount has been determined under sub-section (3), that amount; and the District Judge, after giving notice to the parties and hearing such of them as desire to be heard, shall determine the persons entitled to receive the compensation or, as the case may be, the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in it.

(5) Every determination of a dispute by a District Judge under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall be final:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the right of any person to recover by suit the whole or any part of any compensation paid by the telegraph authority from the person who has received the same.

17. Removal or alteration of telegraph line or post on property other than that of a local authority.—(1) When, under the foregoing provisions of this Act, a telegraph line if ¹[, post or works] has been placed by the telegraph authority under, over, along, across, in or upon any property, not being property vested in or under the control or management of a local authority, and any person entitled to do so desires to deal with that property in such a manner as to render it necessary or convenient that the telegraph line or post should be removed to another part thereof or to a higher or lower level or altered in form, he may require the telegraph authority to remove or alter the line or post accordingly:

Provided that, if compensation has been paid under section 10, clause (d), he shall, when making the requisition, tender to the telegraph authority the amount requisite to defray the expense of the removal or alteration, or half of the amount paid as compensation, whichever may be the smaller sum.

(2) If the telegraph authority omits to comply with the requisition, the person making it may apply to the District Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the property is situate to order the removal or alteration.

(3) A District Magistrate receiving an application under sub-section (2) may, in his discretion, reject the same or make an order absolutely or subject to conditions, for the removal of the telegraph line or post to any other part of the property or to a higher or lower level, or for the alteration of its form; and the order so made shall be final.

Provisions applicable to all Property

18. Removal of trees interrupting telegraphic communication.—(1) If any tree standing or lying near a telegraph line interrupts, or is likely to interrupt, telegraphic communication, a Magistrate of the first or second class may, on the application of the telegraph authority, cause the tree to be removed or dealt with in such other way as he deems fit.

(2) When disposing of an application under sub-section (1), the Magistrate shall, in the case of any tree in existence before the telegraph line was placed, award to the persons interested in the tree such compensation as he thinks reasonable, and the award shall be final.

19. Telegraph lines and posts placed before the passing of this Act.— Every telegraph line¹[, post or works] placed before the passing of this Act under, over, along, across, in or upon any property, for the purposes of a telegraph established or maintained by the²[Federal Government], shall be deemed to have been placed in exercise of the powers conferred by, and after observance of all the requirements of, this Act.

(2) If any such person without having complied with the provisions of sub-section (1) deals with any property in such a manner as is likely to cause damage to any telegraph line⁴[, post or works], or to interrupt or interfere with telegraphic communication, a Magistrate of the first or second class may, on the application of the telegraph authority, order such person to abstain from dealing with such property in such manner for a period not exceeding one month from the date of his order and forthwith to take such action with regard to such property as may be in the opinion of the Magistrate necessary to remedy or prevent such damage, interruption or interference during such period.

(3) A person dealing with any property in the manner referred to in sub-section (1) with the bona fide intention of averting imminent danger of personal injury to himself or any other human being shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of the said sub-section if he gives such notice of the intended exercise of the right as is in the circumstances possible, or where no such previous notice can be given without incurring the imminent danger referred to above, if he forthwith gives notice of the actual exercise of such right to the authority or officer specified in the said sub-section.]

⁴Subs. by Act No. LXVII of 1975, s. 12, for "or post".

¹[19B. Power to confer upon licensee powers of telegraph authority under this Part.—

The ²[Federal Government] may, by notification in the ³[official Gazette], confer upon any licensee under section 4, in respect of the extent of his license and subject to any conditions and restrictions which the ²[Federal Government] may think fit to impose and to the provisions of this Part, all or any of the powers which the telegraph authority possesses under this Part with regard to a telegraph established or maintained by the Government or to be so established or maintained:

Provided that the notice prescribed in section 19A shall always be given to the telegraph authority or officer empowered to receive notice under section 19A (1).]

PART IV

PENALTIES

⁴[20. Establishing, maintaining or working unauthorized telegraph.—(1) If any person establishes, maintains or works a telegraph within ⁵[Pakistan] in contravention of the provisions of section 4 or otherwise than as permitted by rules made under that section, he shall be punished, if the telegraph is a wireless telegraph, with imprisonment which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both, and, in any other case, with a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), offences under this section in respect of a wireless telegraph shall, for the purposes of the said Code, be bailable and non-cognizable.

(3) When any person is convicted of an offence punishable under this section, the Court before which he is convicted may direct that the telegraph in respect of which the offence has been committed, or any part of such telegraph, be forfeited to ⁶[Government].

⁷[20A. Breach of condition of license.—If the holder of a license granted under section 4 contravenes any condition contained in his license, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and with a further fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every week during which the breach of the condition continues.]

21. Using unauthorized telegraphs.—If any person, knowing or having reason to believe that a telegraph has been established or is maintained or worked, in contravention of this Act, transmits or receives any message by such telegraph, or performs any service incidental thereto, or delivers any message for transmission by such telegraph, or accepts delivery of any message sent thereby, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

22. Opposing establishment of telegraphs on railway land.—If ¹[the Railway Administration] or an officer of ¹[the Railway Administration] neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of section 6, it or he shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day during which the neglect or refusal continues.

23. Intrusion into signal-room, trespass in telegraph Office or obstruction.—If any person—

- ²[(a) without permission of competent authority, enters a building, or a portion thereof, housing equipment belonging to the telegraph authority or to a person licensed under this Act, or]
- (b) enters a fenced enclosure round such a telegraph office in contravention of any rule or notice not to do so, or
- (c) refuses to quit such room or enclosure on being requested to do so by any officer or servant employed therein, or
- (d) wilfully obstructs or impedes any such officer or servant in the performance of his duty, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

24. Unlawfully attempting to learn contents of messages.—If any person does any of the acts mentioned in section 23 with the intention of unlawfully learning the contents of any message, or of committing any offence punishable under this Act, he may (in addition to the fine with which he is punishable under section 23) be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year.

THE PAKISTAN CODE

25. Intentionally damaging or tampering with telegraphs.—If any person, intending—

- (a) to prevent or obstruct the transmission or delivery of any message, or
- (b) to intercept or to acquaint himself with the contents of any message, or
- (c) to commit mischief,

damages, removes, tampers with or touches any battery, machinery, telegraph line, post or other thing whatever, being part of or used in or about any telegraph or in the working thereof, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

¹[29A. Penalty.— If any person, without due authority,—

- (a) makes or issues any document of a nature reasonably calculated to cause it to be believed that the document has been issued by, or under the authority of, the ²[Director General, Pakistan Telegraph and Telephone Department], or
- (b) makes on any document any mark in imitation of, or similar to, or purporting to be, any stamp or mark of any Telegraph Office under the ²[Director General, Pakistan Telegraph and Telephone Department], or a mark of a nature reasonably calculated to cause it to be believed that the document so marked has been issued by, or under the authority of, the ²[Director General, Pakistan Telegraph and Telephone Department], he shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.]

30. Retaining a message delivered by mistake.—If any person fraudulently retains, or wilfully secretes, makes away with or detains a message which ought to have been delivered to some other person, or, being required by a telegraph officer to deliver up any such message, neglects or refuses to do so, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.

31. Bribery.—A telegraph officer shall be deemed a public servant within the meaning of sections 161, 162, 163, 164 and 165 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860); and in the definition of “legal remuneration” contained in the said section 161, the word “Government” shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to include a person licensed under this Act.

32. Attempts to commit offences.—Whoever attempts to commit any offence punishable under this Act shall be punished with the punishment herein provided for the offence.

PART V

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS

33. Power to employ additional police in places where mischief to telegraphs is repeatedly committed.—(1) Whenever it appears to the ³[Provincial Government] that any act causing or likely to cause wrongful damage to any telegraph is repeatedly and maliciously committed in any place, and that the employment of an additional police-force in that place is thereby rendered necessary, the ³[Provincial Government] may send such additional police-force as it thinks fit to the place, and employ the same therein so long as, in the opinion of that Government, the necessity of doing so continues.

(2) The inhabitants of the place shall be charged with the cost of the additional police-force, and the District Magistrate shall, subject to the orders of the ³[Provincial Government], assess the proportion in which the cost shall be paid by the inhabitants according to his judgment of their respective means.
